Ian Gay
Chairman

Australia's North West Tourism

Ian worked for Qantas Airways for 45 years. During his career he held many senior roles in the airline including Sales, Marketing, Commercial Planning, Passenger Systems, Pricing and Revenue Management and Alliances. He has also worked overseas, in Regional Management roles in New Zealand and South East Asia.

In 2000, Ian was appointed Regional General Manager Western Australia and Northern Territory and moved to Perth with his family. Last year, before leaving Qantas, Ian was back in Singapore as Regional General Manager Asia.

Ian has been on the Board of the Perth Convention Bureau since 2003. He is currently the Vice Chairman. He became Chairman of Australia's North West Tourism in February this year.
