

Paul Ferrante

Manager Northern and Goldfields Regions,
LandCorp

Paul has 27 years experience in the property sector and is currently the Manager Northern and Goldfields Regions for LandCorp responsible for the delivery of land development projects across the Kimberley, Gascoyne, Goldfields Esperance and part of the Pilbara.

He has experience delivering residential and Industrial master planned large scale projects to developing in small outback communities from inception and visioning, feasibility, planning and design, risk management, construction, sales, stakeholder management, marketing and public relations.

Paul is a fellow of Leadership WA and is passionate about changing the lives of people in the regions by providing opportunities for employment, business and housing through land development.