

ERIC STREITBERG

Chairman of Buru Energy. He is also a professional geologist and geophysicist with over 35 years experience in exploration and production company management. His career has included responsibility for the establishment and successful growth of a number of Australian listed oil and gas companies. In addition to other important positions he holds he is Chairman of the Marine Parks and Reserves Authority of Western Australia. Eric will profile the opportunities for land based oil and gas developments and hard rock mining in the Kimberley and Canning Basin.

MORRIS MISELOWSKI

Expertise, gained from 30 years of strategic future forecasting for businesses around the globe by drilling down from the broad generalizations of future visions is presented as useable and profitable insights across all areas of business. He will share his insights into what lies over the business horizon 5, 10, 15 years from now and explain why every business will have to conquer combining their "bricks and mortar" business with a robust online presence. Morris will be available through out the forum to answer your questions and discuss issues with you one on one.

MARION FULKER

Chief Executive Officer of the Committee for Perth and was previously the Executive Director of the Urban Development Institute of Australia, WA Division. She has an intense interest in planning and development and city making. She serves on many high level government advisory committees and is currently the Chair of the Heritage Council of Western Australia.

NICK BELYEA

Appointed as the Chief Executive Officer of Broome International Airport in April 2007, he is a member of the Board of the Broome Chamber of Commerce and Industry as well as being actively engaged in many activities promoting Broome as a major centre. Nick is the expert on air services in Broome and a dedicated participant in planning for their future expansion. He will expand on the economic imperatives in aviation.

NICOLE ROOKE

Executive Director of the Chamber of Minerals and Energy. The Chamber has commissioned Ernst & Young to conduct a comprehensive audit of capacity in the Kimberley to meet the demands of future mining developments. Nicole will share the outcomes of this audit which covers not only hard infrastructure but social and community capacity as well.

ELISABETH LUCKE

Chair of the Board of Australia's North West Expo. Elisabeth is a founding director of this organization and intimately involved with its strategic growth. With a background in media, advertising and marketing, Elisabeth is also currently the Regional Sales Manager for GWN7, and a Director of the Broome Chamber. Her insights into the Kimberley region stem from over 18 years of working with businesses in every industry sector.

SUE MCCARREY

Appointed to the new position of Deputy Director General - Policy Planning and Investment on 31 May 2010. Since joining the Department of Transport she has instigated a review of the policy activities and overseen the establishment of the Western Australian Transport Policy Advisory Group. Sue is also the current President of the Western Australia Institute of Public Administration Council.

Sue was a member of the Public Transport Authority Executive for eight years, most recently in the position of Executive Director Safety and Strategic Development. Sue has played a leading role in a number of major rail projects for the State, including Oakajee and Karara railway projects. Sue has also worked in a number of government administration roles within the Department of Education and Training including policy development and review, strategic planning, and Commonwealth-State relations.

A law degree and post-graduate qualifications in policy and administration provide Sue with expertise in government policy and administration, including legal frameworks and the mechanics of government.

BILL PEARCE

Bill is the Business Development Manager for Northern Australia with Bunnings Group Limited. His key focus is on expanding Bunnings business in Northern Australia. Bill has been with Bunnings for over 25 years.

CAPTAIN VIC JUSTICE

Captain Vic Justice has an extensive background in port and terminal management and operations, including all maritime phases of the dry bulk and crude oil industries. He holds tertiary qualifications in maritime and logistics management and is trained and experienced in project management. He was a Marine Pilot and loading master at six WA ports and terminals. As Harbourmaster at Dampier he was closely involved in strategic and logistics management to address the growing demands of the Pilbara resources sector, and its huge onshore and offshore projects. Today he is CEO at Broome where the offshore resources sector is experiencing exponential growth, with commensurate demands on the Port. Captain Justice is a part-time doctoral student with University of Tasmania.

TONY PROCTOR

Tony has been President of the Broome Chamber since 2008. He spent 35 years as a professional accountant advising on the structure of finance for major infrastructure projects and advising governments on reform and restructure of gas and electricity industries. He has a law degree from Monash University. Tony is on the governing Board of Kimberley Training Institute and has a number of business interests in Broome.